

University of London International Foundation Programme

ONCAMPUS London is a Recognised Teaching Centre for the University of London International Foundation Programme (UoL IFP), one of the most widely accepted foundation programmes in the world.

This academic award from the University of London is a mark of excellence and is highly respected by employers and universities worldwide. Delivered at ONCAMPUS London, the programme is intense and students are expected to maintain high academic standards throughout the course.

Academics at the University of London develop the syllabuses, prepare the study materials, and are responsible for the assessment of all students. This means that students benefit from the academic rigour and cutting-edge research undertaken by the University of London.

On successful completion of their studies, students are awarded the University of London International Foundation Certificate. The certificate states that students were registered with the University of London, that examinations were conducted by the University of London. This certificate will be highly valued by universities and employers.

“Simply speaking my teachers are the best... independent study was highly required and, in my experience with ONCAMPUS, education in the UK puts great emphasis on expressing knowledge in our own language and applying it to real-world issues.

The Higher Education team didn't hesitate to help students, they advised me on how to write a strong personal statement and I believe their help attributed to me achieving my progression to the London School of Economics.”
